Woodlawn Presbyterian Church (USA)

Julia O'Neal Endowment Scholarship Fund

Type of Fund: Permanent Endowment Fund

Established by: The fund was established by Mrs. Julia O'Neal with the Presbyterian Foundation.

Purpose: To provide scholarship funds for deserving college students of Woodlawn Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) who are seeking an education beyond High School.

Funding: Funds were given by Mrs. O'Neal before her death and funds were designated from her estate at her death.

Woodlawn will receive only the interest from the fund on an annual basis. Woodlawn must keep an accurate record of the use of funds to be reported to the Presbyterian Foundation upon request.

Guidelines For The Julia O'Neal Scholarship Award:

- Applicant must be a member of Woodlawn Presbyterian Church (USA). If there are no applicants from Woodlawn Presbyterian Church (USA) the Session may award the scholarship to a non-church member.
- Applicant must demonstrate financial need.
- Applicant must show proof of enrollment in an institution of higher learning.
- The scholarship will be awarded annually.
- First consideration will be given to those who are not receiving another scholarship from Woodlawn Presbyterian Church (USA) during the same school year.
- The following application form must be filled out by the student requesting the scholarship.
